

CIEH Environmental Awareness

Course covering the principles of Protecting the Environment

Course Overview

The way in which we as individuals and organisations as a whole treat the environment is now more important than ever. Environmental Management is now a key consideration for any business and its staff.

This Environmental Awareness course will help learners identify the areas of the business that are having an effect on the environment and bring to their attention common environmental issues within the workplace.

This course provides for all the core aspects of protecting the environment and covers all the main training outcomes such as:

- ✓ Identify the causes of pollution and waste
- ✓ Minimise negative impacts to the environment
- ✓ Enhance the health and functioning ecosystems at work and home.

Why is this Training Important?

The need for businesses to address environmental issues has never been greater. Tendering requirements, changing needs of lenders and investors and increasing legislation are forcing businesses to address their environmental performance and our Environmental Awareness course will help your workforce to take corrective action and be confident in dealing with environmental issues and customer queries.
